Cleveland's Echo on the Edge of Darkness and Light: "Love Will End Abortion"...

Just steps from Preterm, Ohio's blue-ribbon winner each year for most murdered babies, the scene outside resembles a kindly pop-up country fair. Slices of pepperoni pizza, snack bags, racks of sharp-looking maternity wear, shiny new toys, rosaries, and Miraculous Medals circulate like borrowed cups of sugar...

Pope Leo's Peru: An EWTN News Special Report...

EWTN News presents Pope Leo's Peru, a one-hour special report by Jonathan Liedl examining the missionary roots of Pope Leo XIV's ministry. Filmed on location in northern Peru, the program highlights Pope Leo's years of pastoral services as a missionary in rural Chulucanas, a pastor in the port city of Trujillo, and bishop of the diocese of Chiclayo...

Is Jesus Your Savior or Your Friend?

When the angel Gabriel announced to the Blessed Virgin Mary that she would bear a son and that her son was to be called Jesus, which means Savior, and that he was to be the ruler of a kingdom that would never end, one could only imagine what she was thinking at that very moment. Since the blessed Mother is the Immaculate Conception, she responded by submitting to the will of the Father...

Here Is the Missing Step in Parish Renewal...

Working on parish renewal is a very good thing. It comes from an attitude of "okay isn't okay" or "we can be better" or "God wants more". These are gifts. We got here because the Lord stirred hearts to reach more souls. So, the conferences have been attended...

This Sunday, Jesus Is the Way Out of the Jungle of Death...

Imagine Jesus has taken you with his apostles into the middle of the South American jungle. On one side, you hear a drug cartel loading their guns. On the other, you hear frantic monkeys warning of a jaguar's approach. The sun is setting and the darkness is becoming total. "Okay. I'm leaving you right here," Jesus says...

In Thanksgiving for the Gift of Baptism...

Three-quarters of a century ago, on April 29, 1951, I was baptized by Father Thomas Love, SJ, in Baltimore's Church of Saints Philip and James. Old Scratch must have thoroughly sunken his claws into my infant self; according to family tradition, I sent up such a howl when he was ousted by water and the Holy Spirit that my cousin Judy hid in a confessional.

To cut to the chase, I will not be speaking tonight at the Xavier Fine Arts Center in Appleton, Wisconsin, on this topic: "Pope Leo takes on technology ... Why it Matters." Sadly, for this first time in my career, I am going to miss a speaking engagement due to illness. Alive in the Spirit: A Reflection on the Sixth Sunday of Easter...

Jesus will not leave us alone. He won't make us children of God in Baptism only to leave us "orphans," He assures us in today's Gospel. He asks the Father to give us His Spirit, to dwell with us and keep us united in the life He shares with the Father. We see the promised gift of His Spirit being conferred in today's First Reading...

How Preoccupation with Sexual Sin Can Stunt Holiness...

In the rising tide of sexual immorality, or in judging the pitiful state of the world, devout Catholics tend to remember the famous statement by Our Lady of Fatima that "More souls go to hell for sins of the flesh than for any other reason." Ever since that time, we have been citing this statement as an indication that more souls go to hell for sexual sins...

3 Reasons to Seek Self-Knowledge...

Though self-knowledge has been praised by great thinkers from ancient times to the present, we don't give this all-too-rare quality the attention it demands. The importance of self-knowledge is probably most noticeable precisely when it is absent. And alas, often we become aware of this absence in others without noticing it in ourselves. So we lack knowledge of our own lack of knowledge, of ourselves!

Entering May With Mary...

Spring lands differently in modern times. Our electric lights, insulated homes, glass windows, and push-button heat all take some of the bite out of winter. Even our long journeys overland are conducted in warmth and light. Not so for our ancestors, particularly in the northern latitudes, who greeted the deliverance from the cold and dark of winter with celebrations second only to Christmas...

Overthinking, Who Do You Love, and Ride of the Weirdos...

For a lot of families, this is peak sacramental season, full of First Communions and Confirmations — we're packing the car and heading off this afternoon to be there for one of our godchildren's big day tomorrow. While I am keenly aware I ought to do and say something, I'm always slightly on the horns about how best to emphasize the importance of a First Communion to a godchild.

Is the Church Dying or Reviving? Yes...

What is going on in the Church in America? Is She singing a swan song, or is She rising again from the ashes like the legendary phoenix? In the spirit of legendary Yankee catcher Yogi Berra, who said, "When you come to a fork in the road, take it," allow me to answer the latter question...

On Shame, Sex and Sacredness: A Theology of the Body Reflection...

Back when I was giving talks to teenagers, there was always a point in the presentation where the audience knew we were getting dangerously close to discussing s-e-x. At that point, I would say, "I know what you're thinking. 'Oh no, she's going to talk about sex. Please don't let her talk about the details. I get so embarrassed.'" And then...
